

Follow your Heart

Recently, you felt a struggle inside,
You needed to make a decision by which you'd abide,
You have a goal that you wish to work toward,
Don't let outside forces keep you from moving forward...

Follow your Heart

You were unsure about whether your decision was right,
Then you came to believe it with all your might,
Just know that the people who care about you,
Will always support you in whatever you do...

Follow your Heart

An interesting journey lies ahead of you,
You have what it takes to make your dreams come true,
Your courage and strength will pave your way,
And always remember these words each day...

FOLLOW YOUR HEART!
